

Senderis Intern Job Description

Hours: 10 per week

Commitment: 1 year

Pay: Volunteer or based on the individual's fundraising. Senderis can assist with fundraising.

Description: Senderis is looking for an intern to help with several areas of the organization's operation. We are a small and growing mission focused on training pastors and leaders in Latin America. This is an exciting ministry with connections in Cuba, Bolivia, Peru, Mexico, Guatemala, Spain and other countries as well. We are developing new programs and reaching hundreds of pastors and leaders. A current priority is to grow our brand awareness in the US. Our new intern will help with:

- Online marketing and project based fundraising using web tools.
- Promote the Senderis "brand" online especially on Facebook.
- Manage print newsletters, special fundraising mailings and donor reminders.
- Manage the Senderis website.
- Manage filing and organizing Senderis documentation.
- Some travel to Latin America is also possible.
- Contribute creatively to the goals of the mission.

Personal background:

- Some knowledge of Spanish is essential. However, most of the work will involve the English side of the organization.
- Must be web savvy.
- Facility with MS office and other programs.
- Well organized.
- Prompt communicator.

Benefits of the internship:

- Learn about mission strategy by participating in a cutting edge international ministry.
- Learn how to run a US non-profit organization.
- Learn (and discover with us) to leverage the Internet for supporting world missions.

If you are interested please send a resume with cover letter to robhaskell@gmail.com. Also be sure to explore our web site: www.senderismission.com. Please include a 2-3 references, including one from a pastor or other Christian leader.